

Take turns with a friend (or parent) to fill in the blanks with the type of word requested. Only ask for the type of word (the sillier the better!) and write them in the appropriate spot – but don't read the story yet! When all the blanks have been filled in, it's time to read your silly story!

Hint: Adverb: A word ending in -ly, such as quickly, slowly, Adjective: A descriptive word, such as ugly, small, happy, green Verb: An action word, such as run, jump, sleep, talk

Once upon a time there was a very _____ named _____ who adjective thing name 1 lived in a _____. _____ was not only _____ but he was also thing Name 1 adjective very, very _____ because his pet _____ ran away to _____.
adjective thing place.

One day, _____ decided to _____ his way to _____ to try to find a new Name 1 verb place
 _____. So he _____ on the first _____ he could find, only to find thing verb ending in -ed thing that it was completely _____.
adjective

But _____ would not be discouraged because he was a _____.
Name 1 adjective thing

So he _____ all the way to _____ where he met _____, verb ending in -ed place name of a famous person who not only helped him find a new _____ but also got him a _____ role in thing adjective

 _____.
name of a movie

And it got even more _____ for _____ when he met _____, who was the adjective Name 1 name 2 most _____ he'd ever seen. So _____ and _____ went to adjective thing name 1 name 2

_____, where they _____ ever after.
place verb ending in -ed adverb