

Easter indulgence

Peppers Spicers Peak in Queensland is offering luxury packages over the Easter weekend that include three nights' accommodation, daily breakfast, meals including two "degustation dinners" and a Sunday barbecue, chocolate and caviar masterclasses and all beverages. Priced at $1835 a person. Upgrades available. Phone (07) 4666 1083 or see spicerspeaklodge.com.au.

Papua bound

Head into the heart of Papua. Imaginative Traveller has an 18-day trip from Bali that includes an eight-day trek through the wilderness of the remote Baliem Valley. Includes accommodation in simple hotels and camps, five domestic flights and many meals. Priced from $3280 a person plus a local payment of $450. Phone 1300 135 088 or see imaginative-traveller.com.au.

Anyone for tennis?

Forget the TV, enjoy the French Open up close. Flight Centre has packages to the grand slam tournament that include two nights' accommodation, reserved Centre Court seats and access to outside courts on day four of play (May 28). Phone 131 600 or see flightcentre.com.au.

Artful Easter

Celebrate Easter with some award-winning sculpture at Victoria's Werribee Park. Sofitel Mansion & Spa has packages including overnight accommodation, full breakfast in Joseph's Restaurant, wine tasting at Shadowfax Winery and entry to the mansion, Werribee Park Sculpture Walk and the Helen Lempriere National Sculpture Award. Priced from $119 a person, twin share, it's valid from March 16 to April 7. Phone 9731 4000 or see www.mansionhotel.com.au.

High on Peru ... Chinchero markets.

Talk Turkey

The Greece and Mediterranean Travel Centre has $100 off its nine-night Classical Turkey Tour (standard rate $1090 a person, twin share) for bookings in March. Starting in Ankara, the tour includes visits to Ephesus, Troy and Anzac battlefields, finishing in Istanbul. Valid for departures this year. Phone 1300 661 666 or see grecemedtravel.com.

Sweet deals

Get chocolatey wherever you are this Easter. Zuji has a variety of chocolate-related experiences including a food walking tour of Paris (from $142 a person), a gourmet food tour of Barcelona (from $24 a person), and a tour of the Cadbury Chocolate Factory in Hobart (from $65 a person). See zuji.com.au.

Sea World for the kids

Enjoy a break with the kids in the next school holidays. Holidays with Kids is offering

Age
Saturday 8/3/2008
Page: 19
Section: Travel
Region: Melbourne Circulation: 301,000
Type: Capital City Daily
Size: 284.03 sq.cms.
Published: MTWTFS-

Brief: HOLIDAYS
Page 2 of 2

packages to Sea World on the Gold Coast in which kids aged between four and 12 years stay and eat for free. Priced from $159 an adult, a night, twin share, the deal includes free entry to the theme park and a free plush toy per booking. See holidayswithkids.com.au.

Motorhome relocations

Standbycars has a seven-day trip in a two- or four-berth motorhome from Cairns to Sydney for $1 a day. It will even throw in $150 towards fuel costs on the one-way trip. For travel during March with extra days available on request. Phone 1300 789 059 or see standbycars.com.

Peru for less

Ancient Incan ruins and the influence of the conquistadors are all part of World Expeditions' 16-day Peru adventure. It has up to $600 a person off for bookings on Peru Special trips departing June 5 and September 11. Priced at $4450, the trip includes flights ex-Sydney, accommodation, guides and most meals. Phone 1300 720 000 or see worldexpeditions.com.

Walk on the wild water side

Experience Dubai's Wild Wadi Water Park. Orient Express Holidays has packages including air fares ex-Sydney or Melbourne, three nights' accommodation and free entry to the water park. Priced from $2349 an adult, twin share. The first child under 12 stays free (paying $1327 for air fare only) while the second child pays air fare plus $30 a night. For sale until April 1. Phone 1300 674 368 or see www.oetravel.com.au.

David Adams

Send deals to travellerdeals@fairfax.com.au.